

2010 Angeline Reserve Pinot Noir

SILVER MEDAL

2012 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition

2009 Angeline Reserve Sonoma-Santa Barbara-Mendocino Counties Pinot Noir

86 POINTS

“Here’s a good, simple Pinot Noir with some extra qualities to recommend it. It’s dryish and silky, with rich, raspberry, cherry, vanilla and smoky oak flavors, brightened by fine acidity.”

2008 Angeline Reserve Sonoma-Santa Barbara-Mendocino Counties Pinot Noir

“A good, everyday Pinot Noir. It’s somewhat rugged, with jagged tannins, and the flavors are direct and simple, suggesting cherry jam and buttered cinnamon toast. But the silky texture is pure Pinot Noir.”
