

2007 Angeline Russian River Valley Chardonnay

87 POINTS, BEST BUY

“A clean, grapey chardonnay with broad, leesy flavors, this will match shrimp or other shellfish in a cream sauce.”

- Wine & Spirits Magazine, Oct. 2009 issue

85 POINTS

“Clean and delicately structured, like fresh spring snowmelt flavored with pineapple and citron essence and a dusting of vanilla.”

– Wine Enthusiast, September 2009 issue

“Fragrant floral and ripe peach and nectarine flavors are clean and refreshing, ending on a sweet fruity note.”

– J.L., Wine Spectator, Oct. 15, 2008 issue

2005 Angeline Russian River Valley Chardonnay

“Medium bodied with ripe, concentrated aromas and flavors of apple, pear, and peach that carry through to the finish. Roasted chicken.”

– Santé Magazine, September 2007 issue

2005 Angeline Russian River Valley Chardonnay

85 POINTS

“Pure flavors of citrus and melon are soft, direct and smooth, with a tasty, lemony finish.”

-Wine Spectator, July 31, 2007

2005 Angeline Russian River Valley Chardonnay

86 POINTS

“Showing all the hallmarks of a wonderful, long hang time vintage. Pineapples, kiwis, limes and green apples are enriched with a touch of smoky, buttery oak and creamy lees.”

- S.H., Wine Enthusiast Magazine, June 2007

2005 Angeline Russian River Valley Chardonnay

93 POINTS

“The aromas are light and the chardonnay fruit characteristics are moderated. The wine is dry, medium-bodied, slightly tart, with overall moderate flavor intensity. The wine is very drinkable and will likely appeal to a wide range of dinner guests.

Serve with fish and lighter fare.”
