

2010 Martin Ray Napa Valley Merlot

SILVER MEDAL WINNER

2012 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition

2009 Martin Ray Napa Valley Merlot

“Ripe cherry-berry aromas, over notes of sage, sweet oak and toast. Cooked dark plums and currants on the palate, with clove, allspice and vanilla. Balanced tannins and spicy finish. Roasted goose with a blackberry ginger sauce.”

- Santé Magazine, Winter 2011/2012 issue

Wine Spectator

Top Value California Merlots

Top Value!

88 POINTS! MARTIN RAY
MERLOT NAPA VALLEY 2009 $20

This supple wine has black cherry, toasty vanilla and dried herb notes.—T.F.

*Tim Fish's
Recommended
California
Merlots*

November 30, 2011 issue

2009 Martin Ray Napa Valley Merlot

87 POINTS

“A smooth, rich, ripe Merlot for drinking now with a nice steak. It’s sturdy in tannins, with delicious cherry and oak flavors that have layers of complexity.”

– S.H., Wine Enthusiast Magazine, October 2011 issue

2009 Martin Ray Napa Valley Merlot

88 POINTS

“Supple and easy to like, with appealing black cherry, toasty vanilla and dried herb notes. Drink now.”

– T.F., Wine Spectator, Sept. 30, 2011 issue

2008 Martin Ray Napa Valley Merlot

84 POINTS

“A good, useful Merlot. Dry and tannic, it has earthy flavors of black cherries, licorice, teriyaki beef, Asian spices and oak.”

– S.H. Wine Enthusiast, September 2010 issue

2008 Martin Ray Napa Valley Merlot

GOLD MEDAL

2010 San Francisco International Wine Competition

2008 Martin Ray Napa Valley Merlot

SILVER MEDAL WINNER

Orange County 2010 Wine Competition

2007 Martin Ray Napa Valley Merlot

86 POINTS

“Jammy and direct, with rich blackberry, cherry, anise, mocha and roasted almond flavors that have a touch of sweetness, like a health bar.”

– S.H., Wine Enthusiast, December 1st, 2009 issue

2007 Martin Ray Napa Valley Merlot

SILVER MEDAL WINNER

2009 San Francisco International Wine Competition