5 STARS, 94 POINTS

“This wine is smooth, ripe and generous with waves of fresh raspberry and black cherry; the flavors are harmoniously balanced with hints of spice and well integrated tannins on the long finish; has the elegance and power of some of the better Premiere Cru burgundies.”

– Beverage Dynamics, September/October 2007

CELLAR SELECTION

92 POINTS! MARTIN RAY PINOT NOIR
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY RESERVE 2004 $40

Easily the best Martin Ray Pinot in memory, this wine has hidden depths, and is absolutely delicious right now. It's pale in color, even a little brown at the edge, yet explodes in the mouth with fresh, vibrant cherry pie filling, rhubarb tea, cola and cinnamon flavors. Despite the power, the texture is delicate and silky.
