

2002 Red.

“A nose of sweet dark fruit and smoky oak. Flavors of sweet dark cherry, raspberry, and chocolate dominate plus some dry tannin and finish medium-broad and medium-long.

Well balanced, structured, and integrated. Tasty.”

- Colorado Wine News, October-December 2005

