PINOT NOIR
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY
2019

“Moving to the 2019 Pinot Noir Russian River Valley, this is another pretty, elegant wine, especially coming from the Russian River Valley which can produce more decadent, blockbuster-styled wines. It has attractive notes of spiced red fruits, dried flowers, baking spices, and loamy soil. Medium-bodied, elegant, and moderately textured on the palate, I love its overall balance, and it has a clean, lengthy finish as well. It’s another elegant Russian River Valley Pinot Noir from this vintage that shines for its complexity and overall balance and charm. It should drink well for 2-4 years, if not longer.”
