DIAMOND MOUNTAIN DISTRICT | NAPA VALLEY

"This voluptuous, full-bodied and sleek wine is layered in luxurious blue and black fruits that saturate the palate while superfine tannins shape the middle and finish. Mint and floral notes accent the gorgeous fruits. A truly impressive mountain wine that punches way above its price range. Best after 2029."

2022 MARTIN RAY RESERVE CONCRETE CHARDONNAY
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

“This unoaked wine was fermented on native yeast, then aged on its lees exclusively in concrete egg vessels. A medium body and fresh acidity make a good structure for the full fruit flavors and chalky, mineral accents that the concrete brings out. A brilliant alternative to oak bomb Chardonnays. Screw cap.”
